

Introduction to ATLAS.ti Cloud

Free webinar (web-conference)

Language: English

Duration: 18:30-19:00 (CET)

Instructor: Ivana Radivojevic, Project Coordinator and Client Relations Manager with ATLAS.ti (Ivana.radivojevic@atlasti.com)

Requirements

This webinar is taught using GoToWebinar, an online video conferencing system. To participate in the webinar, a good Internet connection is necessary to avoid interruptions. A wireless Internet connection is not recommended. You can register for ATLAS.ti Cloud here: <https://cloud.atlasti.com>

Introduction

The objective of this webinar is to provide a global overview of ATLAS.ti Cloud, including the fundamental procedures related to creating a project, adding data, coding, and analysis.

Outline

- 1. Organize your qualitative data in the Cloud
 - a. Why qualitative data analysis with ATLAS.ti Cloud?
 - b. Getting started: register, login, and create a project
 - c. Manage your data in one place: import Word/PDF files, create documents, describe your documents
 - d. Write additional content and structure your documents the way you want

- 2. Data analysis at your fingertips
 - a. Analyzing your data: tag qualitative insights by coding quotations
 - b. Gain fast insights: use smart auto-coding to identify relevant data segments by keywords and suggested synonyms
 - c. Reflect on your data: write comments on quotations
 - d. Manage your codes in one place: edit, describe, export codes (QDC/CSV formats)
 - e. Manage your quotations in one place: edit, describe, export quotations (CSV format)

- 3. Discover valuable research insights
 - a. Memos: a space for developing a deeper understanding of your data
 - b. Creating memos and capturing your analysis journey, findings, and conclusions

- 4. Move forward with ATLAS.ti Cloud
 - a. Export your project to ATLAS.ti 8 Windows/Mac
 - b. Live chat support
 - c. Feature Roadmap
 - d. Upcoming features

- 5. Questions and answers